Final Program
of the Summer School

Tuesday - 3rd of June 2014

09.30 – Registration with early bird coffee

10.00 – Welcome address
   (Tibor Bartha, Vice Dean of the Faculty, national project leader)

10.05 – Introduction to the VetVIP project (Marta Kankofer, coordinator)

10.30 – KEYNOTE: "Use of e-learning in medical   education and the importance of international cooperation" (Martin Fischer)

11.50 – Useful information (Míra Mándoki)

12.00 – Lunch

13.00 – Workshop sessions
   1. „Oral versus electronic multiple choice exams - advantages and disadvantages"
      (Maren von Köckritz-Blickwede; Germany)
   2. „High fidelity virtual patients in veterinary education: working with the VIN
      Virtual Clinic" (Márton Balogh; Hungary)

14:30 – COFFEE-Break

15.00 – Workshop sessions
   3. „How to create good questions" (Jan Ehlers; Germany)
   4. „The students´ view of case-based e-learning and virtual patients"
      (Christin Kleinsorgen, Germany + students)

16:30 – Short summary of the workshops in plenary session with discussion

17.30 – End of session

19.30 – Social Event

Wednesday - 4th of June 2014

09.00 – Early bird coffee (registration for a Campus walk)

09.30 – Introduction (Chairperson: Jan P. Ehlers)

09.35 – KEYNOTE: „Curriculum planning in veterinary medicine"
   (Peter van Beukelen)

10.20 – Questions and discussion followed by a COFFEE-Break

11.00 – Visit to the Campus and to the Small Animal Clinic

12.00 – Lunch

13.00 – Summary, conclusions and wrap up

14:00 – Closing remarks (Tibor Bartha)

For further info contact personally Mira or Tibor! ☺